

Since the introduction of the analog VCR, many users like myself have become accustomed to time-shift recording of television programs. I have an unusual work schedule, but I can enjoy taped programs when I get home. It is important to me that as we move further into the digital realm, that I continue to be able to record television programs. Please adopt the least stringent policies possible regarding digital broadcast flags.

Thank you,

Sean Gaynor